The Honorable William S. Sessions
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Bill:

I am enclosing an unsigned copy of a memorandum which I was given yesterday at church. The previous week a woman whose name I do not have, but can obtain, approached me because of some concerns she had developed over what appeared to her to be unwarranted interest by a fellow employee in classified matters. I had asked her to put her concerns in writing.

I suggest that you pass the memorandum along to Jim Geer for his consideration. If he has a counterintelligence interest in the subject matter and would like me to do so, I will undertake to obtain the woman's name and a contact point. I will wait to hear from you or Jim before proceeding further.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Bill
